

FIRE SAFETY

Course Content

This training module has a theory component delivered in the training room and a practical component delivered in the workshop utilising tasks that your employees undertake as a part of their duties.

THEORY

- Each participant receives a handbook containing the contents of the session
- An outline of the regulatory requirements in regards to fire safety
- Hazard identification and control principles relating to fire safety
- Practical demonstration in methods of identifying and removing fire hazards
- Detailed description of class' of fire and fire extinguishers
- Emergency response

PRACTICAL

- As a group a practical assessment of the workshop will be completed to attempt to identify and control fire hazards on site

OBJECTIVES

- To identify and refresh the level of competence of people exposed to potential fire hazards
- To remove complacency and apathy and concern in relation to the inherent risks associated with hot work process'
- To achieve an awareness and respect for the potential for this task to cause serious injuries to all involved

OUTCOMES

- To identify unsafe work practices
- To identify and assess hazardous work practices
- To use the correct equipment for the process involved
- Observe all regulatory requirements
- To report all incidents and faults to the designated person

Occupational Health and Safety

State and Territory regulations all identify the necessity to provide training to employees to achieve a safe working environment. Since 1994 Supply Corporation has been delivering training programs that have assisted clients achieve compliance to the regulations.

Quotation

Quotations are prepared on an individual basis. If you would like to discuss your training requirements please contact us and we will arrange for a consultant to call you. All consultants are employees of Supply Corporation Pty Ltd.

Contact us

3D Safety Services Pty Ltd
PO Box 650 Botany NSW 1455
27 Sir Joseph Banks Street Botany NSW 2019
Phone 1300 663 195 Fax 1300 663 495

www.3dss.com.au

